

YOU'RE INVITED

Best way to jump start the new year. Join me for a day that will change your life. I'm hosting a small group of guys at my house to watch the live stream

NO MEN'S 2/6/21

Hear from top speakers and thought leaders on topics important to us as men. This conference has been a game changer for me and I trust it will be for you as well. The theme is COURAGEOUS, which is so timely for the world we are navigating right now.

Please arrive by 8:00am CT to prepare for the 8:30am live stream to start.

The event is approximately four hours and concludes around 12:30pm. Feel free to hang longer for more discussion. Snacks included. Please let me know if you will attend so I can plan accordingly. For more information on the speakers, topics and details, check out their website.

See you Saturday February 6, 2021
